2nd Sunday of Advent

SUNDAY READINGS: Isaiah 11:1-10; Romans 15:4-9; Matthew 3:1-12

SUNDAY GOSPEL:

John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" It was of him that the prophet Isaiah had spoken when he said: A voice of one crying out in the desert, Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. At that time Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole region around the Jordan were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins.

When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance. And do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you, God can raise up children to Abraham from these stones. Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in his hand. He will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY DISCUSSION IN PREPARATION FOR SUNDAY

1. Describe a time that you felt like you had to do something just because everyone else was. What did you do when you no longer felt that outside pressure?
2. Think of a time you said you were sorry, but like the Pharisees, you really didn't mean it. What sort of things do you need to DO besides just saying "I'm sorry" to show that you really are sorry?
3. Like the Pharisees saying, "We have Abraham as our father," we can think that just calling ourselves "Catholic Christians" is enough. What's one way in your family, that we can better SHOW that we are Catholic Christians in our day-to-day lives?
4. John the Baptist had the job of preparing the way of the Lord. What things can we do as a family to better prepare for the coming of the Lord at Christmas?
